THE SUBURBAN TODAY.

This is one of the red letter days of the turf year because it is Suburban day in the east, while out here in the west the St. Louis Derby and the Latonia Oaks command attention. The Suburban is the most important and promises to furnish a rarely attractive contest between the best handicap horses of the day. Opinion about it in the east is well represented by the following from the New York Sun, of last Monday:

"What seems to be the general sentiment among horsemen was voiced by one of the veterans watching the gallopers yesterday when he said:

"Let Ethelbert, Jean Beraud and Imp go to the post and we don't care what else starts. I don't mean to say that these three hold the others safe at the weights, but they have attracted so much attention recently that a decisive meeting between them would furnish one of the red-letter chapters in the history of the race. This seems to be Imp's long-looked-for opportunity. Her trainer and part owner, Charles Brossman, has been clamoring for a chance at Ethelbert. Jean Beraud is also due for another go at the Belmont champion, and we all hope that they will have it out on Saturday."

This illustrious trio will go to the post and with them much other gallant and highly tried company, the announced list of jockeys and probable riders being as follows:

Horses.	Age.	Jockeys.	Wts.
Ethelbert	4	Mahe	130
Imp	6	Clawson	128
Jean Beraud	4	Turner	127
Kinley Mack	4	McCue	125
John Bright	5	Spencer	119
Prince McClurg	4	O'Connor	117
Rafaello	4	Jenkins	113
Intrusive	5	Bullman	111
Petruchio	3	Rauch	102
Survivor	4	Odum	100
Sarmatian	3	Henry	99
Herbert	3	Mitchell	96

This is a grand field and the race is bound to be of uncertain issue. Ethelbert, Kinley Mack, Jean Beraud and Herbert were tried out Wednesday. An eastern exchange reports results as follows:

"The first of the great ones to have a preparatory try for the Coney Island Jockey Club's big handicap was P. Belmont's Ethelbert, whom trainer Joyner ushered out at the break of day and sent a mile and a quarter in 2:08. The fractional time of the trip was as follows: Furlong, 12½ seconds; three furlongs, 38; half, 51; five furlongs, 1:03; six furlongs, 1:16; seven furlongs, 1:28½; mile, 1:41; mile and a furlong, 1:54½; mile and a quarter, 2:08. Mahe was in the saddle and the move was a grand one from every point of view.

"Trainer P. Wimmer, who has a couple of the most prominent Suburban eligibles in his barn, gave them their winding up gallop in a fast way. Jean Beraud was asked a mile and a quarter in 2:09½, and did it in the following style: Furlong, 13 seconds; quarter, 25½; three furlongs, 38; half, 51; five furlongs, 1:03½; six furlongs, 1:16½; seven furlongs, 1:29½; mile, 1:43½; mile and a furlong, 1:56½; mile and a quarter, 2:09½. Kinley Mack's mile and a quarter effort was done in 2:11½. Fractionally taken, the Brooklyn Handicap winner showed: Furlong, 12½ seconds; quarter, 24; three furlongs, 36½; half, 49; five furlongs, 1:02; six furlongs, 1:15½; seven furlongs, 1:28½; mile, 1:42½; mile and a furlong, 1:56½; mile and a quarter, 2:11½.

"Walter Rollins' eligible, Herbert, got his preparation the afternoon before in the shape of a mile and a quarter turn in 2:11. He carried more than the 96 pounds which is his allotment in the race and performed creditably."

John Bright was tried over the Latonia track before his shipment east, when with his suburban weight up he went the required distance in a highly satisfactory fashion in 2:09½. Some of the fractions being: six furlong, 1:14½; mile, 1:42½; one and one-eighth mile, 1:56. Imp was given her trial in her race of Wednesday, when with 126 pounds up she won from a field of lightly weighted horses with great ease in 2:08. It was as impressive in the way of a public trial as the most exacting of her admirers could have desired.

DIXIANA YEARLINGS SELL WELL.

Major B. G. Thomas has reason to be proud of the prices brought by his crop of yearlings which was sold by The Fasig-Tipton Company in New York Wednesday. The average was the best of the year so far and in two instances the bidding was of the sensational order. Of these two cases Morning Telegraph says:

"Dr. MacBride's colt, out of Quesal, was No. 4 in the catalogue, and with his dam having already produced nothing but winners—and such winners as Maximo Gomez, David II., Trumpet and Tommy Atkins—the competition for this well proportioned and robust colt was certain to be strong. The result shows that this expectation was fully realized, although there appeared to be only two bidders in the race when the pace became strong. Started at $3,000, an advance of $100 saw Julius Bauer raise the quotation to $3,500, at which Captain S. S. Brown, seated in the front row and leaning against one of the supporting poles of the tent, offered $1,000. Almost directly behind Captain Brown sat Mr. Bauer, at whose right was Mr. Arthur Featherstone, evidently determined upon the purchase of another juvenile. The duel between these two interests saw rapid offers of $500 by each until Captain Brown reached $6,000, where there were successive advances of $100, $200 and $300, until Mr. Bauer's $7,500 remained unchallenged.

"The silence which ensued just as Mr. Easton appeared to be on the verge of dropping the hammer was now quickly turned into general hilarity by the impetuous advice of Michael Clancy to James Rowe, shouted across the ring in a characteristic 'Jimmy, go on there.' Despite this exhortation from the former owner of Mazy, the trainer of Tommy Atkins did not see fit to take a hand in the bidding, and the colt was quickly added to the select youngsters who are to serve the 'canary and black' of Mr. Featherstone.

"If the preceding scenes had been sensational, the incidents connected with the disposal of the next lot promised equal developments, for here was a well balanced, short-backed, muscular bay colt, withal a most attractive walker, by Hanover, out of a full sister to Domino. The opening bid of $1,000 was considerably less dashing than had been the case with the Quesal colt, but ere long the offers were mounting at a rate which brought a bid of $8,000 from Mr. M. Murphy. For a moment this threatened to be the limit, but Trainer Matt Allen, standing near the rear of the deep circle of the gathering, midway of the tent, renewed the battle with an advance of $100. Mr. Murphy, standing well to the rear on Mr. Easton's left, calmly nodded an affirmative to the request for an $8,500 bid, however, and the successive offers of $9,000, $9,500 and $10,000 found the colt knocked down to Mr. Allen at the latter figure amid a round of applause.

"Of the remaining lots, trainer Thomas Welsh, acting for the Messrs. Fleischmann, secured the bay colt by Dr. MacBride, out of Hiflight, a whole colored bay, for $2,100, well within his value, while the beautifully bred filly out of Sissieretta, looking for all the world like Correction in her younger days, was probably very cheap to Mr. Tipton at $450.

"As will be seen by the appended summary, the sale resulted in the aggregate total of $26,200, representing the creditable and satisfactory average of $2,183:

Brown colt, by Dr. MacBride—Alabama, by Himyar; M. Murphy	$2,000
Bay colt, by Dr. MacBride—Annul, by Himyar; R. W. Walden	350

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

An incident of the racing at Latonia Thursday that might have led to complications is thus described in yesterday's Commercial Tribune.

"There were arguments galore at Latonia yesterday after the third race, the event in which Starter Caldwell threw his flag, and the recall man failing to see it, did not dip his flag, all the jockeys pulling up in consequence. Most turfmen argued that when the starter threw his flag it was not a start, because the front flag did not fall, and, had any one of the boys made the circuit with his mount, he would not have been given the purse. This argument is not correct, according to the rules of the American Turf Congress, and when Starter Caldwell threw his flag it was a legal start. Rule 124 reads as follows:

"The horses shall be started by machine or flag or by both, and there shall be no start until, and no recall after, the starter has dropped his flag, and, if no flag is used, there shall be no start until, and no recall after, the starter has thrown the machine."

"Thus it is plain from the above rule of the Turf Congress code that when the starter dropped his flag it was a go, despite the failure of the recall flag to dip, and under the circumstances, had any of the horses gone on and covered the mile and a sixteenth, he would have been awarded the purse by the judges.

"The turfmen who insisted it was not a start were no doubt basing their arguments on the rule of the Jockey Club which covers this point. The Jockey Club rule is the same as the one in force on the English turf, but is vitally different from the Turf Congress rule in that the recall flag must drop in response to the starter's flag before it is a go. The Jockey Club rule is as follows:

"The horses shall be started by a flag, and there shall be no start until, and no recall after, the assistant starter has dropped his flag in answer to the flag of the starter."

Judges Price and Tarleton, after the race, said there would have been no recourse but to pay the purse to the horse that finished.

"The rule as to what constitutes a start as now in force is faulty, and it would be a wise move for the Turf Congress to follow the Jockey Club on this point. Some years ago an attempt was made by the Turf Congress to have the rule as in force on Jockey Club tracks, adopted, but it was killed by the opposition of Ed Corrigan. Judge Tarleton said he would advocate at the next meeting of Turf Congress the adoption of the rule as it now stands in the Jockey Club code."

DURWAD WINS AGAIN.

Harlem's steeplechase yesterday furnished a cracking good contest and kept the big crowd of 4,500 standing on their tip-toes at all times. There was some neat jumping done by the horses, some clever riding, a couple of accidents and last, but not least, a bit of carelessness which cost Gwynne Tompkins' mare, Becky Rolfe, the race.

The Harlem course, as has been before stated, is a stiff one and unless a horse has been thoroughly schooled Secretary Nathanson refuses to accept his entry, thereby avoiding accidents and making the races more satisfactory to look at.

Yesterday's steeplechase was over the short course, which is about two miles and a half and requires the contestants to take the water jump and liverpool twice. Seven horses started on the journey, but only five finished—Globe II, and Lord Chesterfield falling at the eleventh and eighth fences respectively.

It was an odd occurrence that both of the horses that had the misfortune to go down were in the lead when this bad luck overtook them. Lord Chesterfield was sailing along about a block in front of the nearest contender when he went wrong. Then Globe II. assumed the lead, and was apparently running well in hand when he came to the eleventh and last fence. Here he got entangled with his martingale and to the dismay of his backers took a header. Becky Rolfe, who was lapped on Globe II. when he went down then assumed command and heading for home on the flat was about ten lengths in the lead and seemed to be sure winner. Master C. Johnson, however, who so far had ridden a perfect race, now began to take matters easy and pose for the grandstand. The consequences was Becky Rolfe stopped suddenly and Durwad, coming with a rush, passed her in the last twenty yards winning by a half length.

Gwynne Tompkins was in the press stand when Johnson threw the race away on his mare Becky Rolfe, and had he been able to get hold of the boy at that very instant it would have been sad for poor Johnson.

Durwad seems to be a shifty sort of a horse at the jumping game and is always well backed when he wins.

The fourth race, which was at a mile and a half, furnished one of the most attractive and closest finishes ever seen at the Harlem track. Caywood was up on Admetus, who was backed from 4 to 1 down to 2½ to 1, and he rode a grand race on the gelding. He took a steady hold of Admetus' head, then he hugged the rail as close as possible, saving much ground and when the pinch came at the end he put up a powerful finish, clearly outriding the other boys and winning a well-earned victory by a nose.

Boney Boy, with 82 pounds on his back, looked like "money from home" in the last race, which was at a mile, but for some unknown reason the ring offered 4 and 5 to 1 against the game son of Blitzen. Seaton was up on Boney Boy, and, waiting on Brulare until the stretch was reached, he then took the lead, and at the finish was three lengths in front of Vohicer, pulling up.

Flaunt was backed down to 4 to 5 to beat an ordinary lot of sprinters, but he did not have speed enough to head a cow down a lane, and finished last but one. Princess Thyra, a 15-to-1 chance, won the Flaunt race off by herself, with Minyon second and Ailanto third.

Lasance at 6 to 1 and well ridden by W. Kiley staggered home three-quarters of a length in front of Prince of Delight in the initial five furlong maiden two-year-old race. Lasance stepped the first quarter in 23 1/2 seconds and the half in 48 1/2 seconds, and this made those that tried to keep up with her in the first part of the race tire.

For the second time during the afternoon
Bishop Poole and jockey Caywood scored when Jim Gore II. won the fifth event. The gelding was taken the shortest route, and coming with a quick rush through the stretch beat Heigh
Ho and Braw Lad about two lengths.

Yesterday's crowd at Harlem was the largest since the opening day—last Saturday. In anticipation of a much larger crowd today the association has arranged for extra train service on all roads leading to Harlem. On the Lake Street Elevated express trains will leave Lake and Clark streets every seven minutes from 12:32 to 1:23 o'clock. Five extra trains will be run on the Metropolitan Elevated and twelve extra trains will be run on the Twelfth street surface line.

During the running of the Suburban Handicap
at Coney Island and the St. Louis Derby at St.
Louis today these races will be called off to the spectators at Harlem.

At a private sale yesterday William Oliver sold Kilarna to M. C. Greenwald.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A dispatch from St. Louis yesterday to a local newspaper, says:

"Pat Dunne will start Star Chamber in the Derby Saturday. All the colts have been worked for the race. Wednesday night on a heavy track Sam Phillips carried his weight, and worked the route in 2:44, after loafing from the quarter to the three-quarter. Dr. Cave worked this afternoon on a better track in 2:42, but it was still slow. Florizar was sent a mile today in 2:14, and Duke of Melbourne went the route in 2:40.
Wounded Knee covered the distance this afternoon in 2:42 1/2, with something left. The probable starters and jockeys in the Derby follow: Sam Phillips, 119 (Burns); Florizar, 119 (Vandusen); Highland Lad, 107 (Crowhurst); Dr.
Cave, 110 (J. Mathews); Duke of Melbourne, 107
(Stevens); Wounded Knee, 97 (Dominick); Star
Chamber, 97 (Devlin); Waldeck, 97 (Tally).

Winner—Ch. f. by Galon d'Or—Erstwhile. Went to post at 3:42. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Formalis was much the best and won as she pleased, although Sidelight carried her out in the stretch. The latter was prominent at all breakaways before the start, but tired at the end. Winner—Gr. c. by The Bard—Victress. Went to post at 4:09. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second the same. It was anybody's race to the final sixteenth, where it seemingly narrowed down to a fight between Lamp Globe and Zoroaster, but Chopin, who was on the outside all the way, got up about the seventy yards mark and, crowding Zoroaster into Lamp Globe, made the latter pull up, and won in a desperate finish. Chopin was best at the weights, as he ran much further than any of the others. Captive was gaining at the end. Free Lance tired in the stretch.

Chopin, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Zoroaster, place, out. Captive, show, 3 to 5. Lamp Globe, place, 2 to 5; show, out.
